Amerspool July 17-71. Sp. m.

My Darling we arrived here yesterday at 8 a.m. & I have been waiting till now for these little notes that tell me you are not well again. About the Penton, be at rest, there is no room for either of us. Aunt & A. will get off tomorrow a.m.; & I can leave their baggage at the office to be put on board. & if it were not for the possibility of your going to Malvern I should go on to London to-morrow night. Now I shall wait until I hear from you.
If you go to M. it will be better for me not to come to London unless you want me to pack for you, & help you off. I would come to Malvern, & then after spending a week there we could go together to Stratford etc. If you are not sympathetically better, do go to ell. & not try to get on in a so so way in London for two weeks. You ought to get this tomorrow a. m. then if you want me to come, either to stay, or to go with you to ell. I wish you would telegraph to me "Come" - for if I go to London I don't care to spend another night here. If you want me to meet you in ~~London~~ Malvern, it will be as well to let me know by note, for I suppose you would not go there before Wednesday. If you telegraph me to come, some one must sit up to open the door for me for I might not arrive till  $11\frac{1}{2}$  or 12. Do not suppose that in any case I would go to London to stay without you. It would be very expensive you see. The Hardwicke House at 6/2 a day would be the safest place for me.

I will not stop to tell you of our journey lest this should miss the mail.

I see that the trains leave L'pool at 5 p.m. & arrive in London at 10.15. So if I get your telegram in time I will take that train (if you telegraph) & there would be no need to sit up for me after  $11\frac{1}{2}$ . if I did not get there by that time it would be because I had not rec'd the telegram in time & you would see me the next a. m.

Dearest -
